

ELIZA,

Sung & Composed

By

MR BRAHAM,

In the Musical Drama of the

PARAGRAPH,

The Words by Prince Hoare Esq^r.

ARRANGED for the PIANO FORTE

by D. Corri.

Ent^d at Stat^s Hall.

Price 1^s. 6

Printed by M.P. Corri & Co. N^o 28 Haymarket.

Andante

The Shadows of eve 'gan to steal o'er the Plain, to E - li - - za my heart my heart I con-fess'd, Love sanction'd the moment she smil'd on my

MA

DC

tr
Pain, On her lip a soft kiss soft kiss I impress'd, I saw her warm cheek like Heav'n's Ca-no-py glow, when Au-ro-ra empur-ples the morn, She Loves me! oh, Heav'n let me ne-ver forego, The faith on her lips, on her lips I have sworn, on her lips I have sworn.

This bosom, tho' fervid with youth, and with health, in all else shall persuasion, persuasion control, Bid me fly from the charms of ambition and wealth, Or the joys of the bright the bright Sparkling Bowl, But E - li - za! dear Maid! till in Hearth im laid - Low, In my heart shall her I - mage be born while she loves me by Heav'n! I will ne - ver forego, The faith on her lips, on her lips I have sworn, on her lips I have sworn.