Allegro

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melodic line with various note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line from the first system. The lower staff continues the accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff features a more active melodic line with frequent sixteenth-note passages. The lower staff continues the accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with complex rhythmic patterns. The lower staff continues the accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line, showing some chromatic movement. The lower staff continues the accompaniment. The system concludes with a double bar line.

Andante

The first system of the Andante section consists of three staves. The top staff is in treble clef, the middle in alto clef, and the bottom in bass clef. The time signature is 6/8 and the key signature has one sharp (F#). The music features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the bass and middle staves, with the treble staff playing chords and moving lines.

The second system continues the three-staff arrangement. It includes repeat signs at the beginning and end of the system. The musical texture remains consistent with the first system, showing a mix of chords and moving lines across the three staves.

The third system continues the three-staff arrangement. It also includes repeat signs at the beginning and end. The notation continues to show a steady accompaniment in the lower staves and more active lines in the upper staves.

Rondo

Allegretto

The Rondo section consists of two staves in treble clef. The time signature is 2/4 and the key signature has one sharp (F#). The tempo is marked 'Allegretto'. The music is characterized by a rhythmic eighth-note accompaniment in the lower staff and a more melodic line in the upper staff.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a complex melodic line with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with a steady eighth-note pattern.

The second system continues the musical piece. The upper staff features intricate melodic passages, while the lower staff maintains a consistent rhythmic accompaniment.

The third system shows further development of the melodic and harmonic themes. The notation includes various rests and dynamic markings.

The fourth system continues the piece, with the upper staff showing more melodic complexity and the lower staff providing a solid harmonic base.

The fifth system is the final system on the page. It begins with the word "Conclusion" written above the upper staff. The music concludes with a final cadence in both staves.

Andantino

In all your dealings

take good care, Instructed by the friendly Square, to be true, upright, just and fair, and thou a fellow Craft shalt be, the

Level so shall poise thy mind, that satisfaction thou shalt find when to another Fortune's kind, and that's the drift of Masonry. of Masonry. of Masonry when to another Fortune's, kind and that's the drift of Masonry.

 The Compass t'other two Compounds,
 And says, tho' anger'd on just grounds,
 Keep all your passions within bounds,
 And thou a fellow craft shalt be.
 Thus symbols of our order, are,
 The Compass, Level, and the Square,
 Which teach us to be just and fair,
 And that's the drift of Masonry.

Allegretto

Here I was my good Masters my name's Teddy Clind, my Cattle are found and I drive to an Inch, from Hyde Park to White Chappel I well know the Town, and many's the time I've took up and fet down, and many's the time I've took up and fet down, in short in the Bills I'll be bound for't there's not a young youth who like Teddy can tip the long trot, can tip the long trot, can tip the long trot, in short in the Bills I'll be bound for't there's not a young youth who like Teddy can tip the long trot, a young youth who like Teddy can tip the long trot.

Oh the notions of life that I see from my box,
While fares of all kinds come about me in flocks;
The Sot, who I drive home to sleep out the day;
The kind one who plies for a fare at the Play;
Or your gents of the law, there, who, four in a lot,
To Westminster Hall I oft trip the long trot.

My Coach receives all like the Gallows and Sea,
So I touch but my Fare you know all's one to me,
The men of the Gown and the men of the Sword,
A Ma'am or a Gambler a Rogue or a Lord,
To wherever you're going I well know the spot,
And do you tip a tizzy I'll tip the long trot.
