The musical score is arranged in four systems. Each system contains a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The piano accompaniment is written on two staves (treble and bass clefs). The tempo is marked 'Allegro brillante.' The score includes dynamic markings such as f (forte) and p (piano). The piano part features complex textures, including chords and arpeggiated figures. The second system includes the instruction 'Wood & Str.' (Woodwind and Strings). The third system includes the instruction 'VI.' (Violin). The fourth system continues the piano accompaniment with similar textures.
